Denver: Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell (WTO) is pleased to announce that Cedric Logan has been elected to the partnership, effective January 1, 2018.

WTO's newest partner, Cedric Logan

Cedric focuses his practice on insurance litigation and product liability defense, particularly in the class action context. In 2017, Cedric played a significant role in the highly favorable resolution of wage and hour class claims in California. He also helped win reversal and remand—while upholding sanctions against opposing counsel—of an adverse insurance dispute in Colorado.

Prior to joining WTO, Cedric served as an associate at Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He earned his J.D. from New York University School of Law. Cedric currently serves on the Board of Directors for Purple Door Coffee, a nonprofit that employs teens and young adults facing homelessness.

Since 2004, Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell lawyers have won 140 trial verdicts and complex arbitrations, and 76 significant appeals nationwide for our clients. Established in 1998, WTO currently numbers 100 lawyers. The firm represents sophisticated clients in high-stakes civil trials, appeals, arbitrations, and related matters, including class actions, mass torts, and multidistrict litigation.
