Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell is a finalist in The American Lawyer's 2018 Industry Awards. The recognition honors "exceptional work that goes on across the entire legal services delivery spectrum and the increasing interconnectedness among members of that community."

WTO was recognized among seven finalists in the National Boutique/Specialty Litigation Department of the Year category.

Selections were made from hundreds of "outstanding submissions" that offered "a new appreciation for the caliber of work and innovation happening in the legal industry," according to a news story released by The American Lawyer on September 17th.

The publication claimed it "learned so much about all of the hundreds of entrants and had to make very difficult decisions" narrowing down the select finalists in eleven categories.
