Denver: BTI Consulting has named trial and litigation boutique Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell to its annual list of the nation's most recommended law firms. WTO appears in the "Frequently Recommended" category, alongside such highly respected firms as Bartlit Beck, Quinn Emanuel, and Williams & Connolly.

"These firms separate themselves by exceeding client expectations to earn unprompted client recognition in interviews," reports BTI. Results are based on 340 in-depth interviews with top legal decisions makers at some of the nation's largest corporations.

"We are grateful to our clients for this recognition," said WTO Co-Managing Partner Michael Williams. "We prioritize excellence in client service and creativity in trial and litigation solutions. Thank you to our clients for putting their credibility on the line when sharing our name with others, and to our lawyers for backing up our clients by consistently delivering excellent service."

Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell lawyers practicing today have taken more than 1,100 trials and arbitrations to verdict or award and hundreds of appeals to opinion all across the nation, with exceptional results for our clients.

Established in 1998, WTO currently numbers more than 110 trial lawyers and litigators. The firm represents sophisticated clients in high-stakes civil trials, appeals, and related litigation ranging from complex commercial to class actions to catastrophic torts.
