liability matters across industries as diverse as consumer products, industrial manufacturing, and cannabis. She serves on WTO's rapid response team for catastrophic torts, which is critical to persevering facts essential to successful defenses. Marissa also serves as co-chair of WTO's associate review committee.

"Marissa is a superb strategist and well-rounded tactician who understands which efforts are most likely to matter in court," says WTO Co-Managing Partner Michael Williams. "She is excellent at anticipating and caring for her clients' needs."

Selection to the list is based on extensive research, client engagement, and peer review conducted by Benchmark.

The complete list is available on the Benchmark Litigation website.
