Denver: Law Week Colorado honored three WTO partners with “People’s Choice” awards in its 2023 edition of Barrister’s Best. The publication’s annual community survey, where readers weigh in on the best attorneys, led to the results.

The recognition:

- Kevin Kuhn—People’s Choice, Best Medical Malpractice Lawyer for Defendants: Kuhn has taken more than 135 trials to verdict, Law Week highlighted. The publication noted that in addition to high-stakes medical malpractice cases, he also represents clients in commercial litigation, personal injury, and professional liability claims. Kuhn has been recognized in Barrister's Best many times.

- Raymond Martin—People's Choice, Employment Lawyer for Defendants: Law Week wrote that Martin has represented numerous large-scale clients, including Fortune 500 companies, in various highly regulated industries in labor and employment litigation. He previously was listed in Barrister's Best.

- Katie Reilly—People's Choice, Best Antitrust Lawyer: The publication pointed out that a peer told Chambers USA Reilly was "a formidable litigator." She represents antitrust clients in complex industries including aviation, healthcare, and telecommunications. She is a past winner of Law Week's Top Women Lawyers award.

Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell lawyers have taken more than 1,100 trials and arbitrations to verdict or award and hundreds of appeals to opinion across the nation, securing exceptional results for our clients.

Established in 1998, WTO today has approximately 100 trial lawyers and litigators. The firm represents sophisticated clients in high-stakes civil trials, appeals and related litigation ranging from complex commercial to class actions to catastrophic torts.
