

Law Week Colorado Features Three WTO “Rising Stars”

News

May 23, 2024

Law Week Colorado highlighted trial wins of WTO lawyers on the 2024 Colorado Super Lawyers “Rising Stars” list.

New partners Ryan Cooke and Brian Osterman and associate Jennie Oxley told Law Week about their recent jury trial victories for the article “Colorado’s ‘Rising Stars’ Share Wins, Views of the Future.” The story was part of the publication’s Super Lawyers edition. The details:

- Cooke served as second chair in a nine-figure jury verdict for DISH Wireless. “It was really rewarding to kick off my move to partner with such a vivid reminder of the incredible things our WTO team can achieve together,” he said.
- Osterman led as first chair in a $33 million jury verdict for a doctor. He said, “The win was very gratifying, especially after years of hard-fought litigation. We achieved vindication for my client and proved that he provided good care.”
- Oxley served as second chair in a jury verdict for an investment company. Cross-examining the defendant’s liability expert was a highlight for Jennie—and a key moment of the trial.

Related Professionals

Brian S. Osterman
Partner

Jennifer J. Oxley

A total of 11 WTO lawyers made this year's Colorado Super Lawyers "Rising Stars" list. Additional "Rising Stars" are William Hauptman, Kevin Homiak, Emily Linehan, Shawn Neal, Tommy Olsen, Jacob Rey, Melissa Romero, and John Sandberg.

Partner & Recruiting Co-Chair

Read about WTO's 2024 Colorado Super Lawyers here.

Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell lawyers have taken more than 1,100 trials and arbitrations to verdict or award and 300 appeals to opinion all across the nation, with exceptional results for our clients.

Established in 1998, WTO today numbers more than 110 trial lawyers and litigators. The firm represents sophisticated clients in high-stakes civil trials, appeals, and related litigation ranging from complex commercial to class actions to catastrophic