

Nicole Jones Selected for Colorado General Counsel Mentorship Program

News

Nov 19, 2025

The Colorado General Counsel Mentorship Program has selected Nicole Jones for its next class.

The program pairs exceptionally talented rising lawyers with senior corporate counsel who provide mentorship on building and managing client relationships, successfully pitching legal services, and developing meaningful relationships with Chief Legal Officers. We appreciate the commitment of all of the lawyers participating in the General Counsel Mentorship Program and thank them for giving their time to support the profession and the careers of the next generation of leaders.
