

WTO Adds Partner Marissa Ronk to Management Committee

News

Feb 2, 2026

Continuing WTO's tradition of succession planning to build a multi-generational firm, the partners have elected Marissa Ronk to our Management Committee. A 2011 graduate of Harvard Law School, Marissa has built a thriving class action and commercial litigation practice that has earned her national recognition as a rising star from Benchmark Litigation and The Best Lawyers in America. Internally, she has stepped forward to help lead the firm, including devoting hundreds of hours each year to develop our next generation of trial lawyers in her role as Chair of the Attorney Review Committee.

As the newest member of our Management Committee, Marissa joins President Katie Reilly, Managing Partner Mike Williams, and At-Large Members Fred Yarger and Joe Farchione.
