

Presenter, “Punitive Damages: How Much, How Far, What Conduct and Where Committed,” The Network of Trial Law Firms’ one-day Litigation Management SuperCourse, (January 31, 2003).

Articles

Jan 31, 2003

For this presentation, in which he discussed pending U.S. Supreme Court case State Farm Mutual Auto. Ins. Co. v. Campbell, Mal Wheeler earned “top honors” at The Network of Trial Law Firms’ one-day Litigation Management SuperCourse held Jan. 31 in Houston.

WTO president Michael L. O'Donnell chaired this well-received seminar. He is 2003 CLE chairman for The Network of Trial Law Firms.

For a copy of the amicus curiae brief prepared by Mal Wheeler for The Business Roundtable and submitted in this case, please see Excessive Punitive Damages? Seventeen Organizations File Amicus Curiae Briefs in U.S. Supreme Court, located in the Press Releases section of this Web site.

Related Professionals

Malcolm E. Wheeler
Counsel Emeritus

Related Practices

Commercial Litigation

