

Presenter, “Legal and Tactical Evidentiary Issues in Punitive Damages Cases,” 2002 Annual Litigation Institute, (October 11, 2002).

Articles

Oct 11, 2002

Co-authored with Lee Mickus; presented by Malcolm E. Wheeler

This detailed outline includes a discussion of the types of admissible or inadmissible evidence used to prove and defend against punitive damages, as well as strategies for presenting or refuting good evidence.

Topics include:

- Is Any Punitive Damages Evidence Admissible? Choice of Law Considerations.
- Evidence of Wealth, Income or Profits
- Discovery: The Importance of Deposing the Plaintiff's Economic Experts
- Motions in Limine
- Defense Evidence and Arguments at Trial

Related Professionals

Malcolm E. Wheeler
Counsel Emeritus

Related Practices

Commercial Litigation

