

Secured a ruling from a California appeals court affirming the preemption of claims brought against our client for its abdominal stent medical device.

2010

A California appeals court affirmed a finding that state law claims against Guidant Corporation and others responsible for the allegedly defective Ancure Endograft System are preempted by the Medical Device Amendments of 1976.

Related Professionals

Craig R. May
Partner

Michael L. O'Donnell
Firm Chair

Related Practices

Product Liability