Wheeler Trigg
O'Donnell

Represented Chrysler in a case in which several Chrysler dealers asserted Chrysler failed to comply with an obligation to provide new dealerships following its bankruptcy. Following trial, the court entered judgment for Chrysler.

2012

Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell represented Chrysler in a case in which several Chrysler dealers on Long Island asserted that Chrysler had failed to comply with its obligation to provide them new dealerships following the Chrysler bankruptcy. Following a trial to the Court in the Eastern District of New York, the Court entered judgment for Chrysler on all of the plaintiffs' claims.

Related Professionals

Hugh Q. Gottschalk
Partner

Related Practices

Franchise

© 2026 Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell LLP. All Rights Reserved