

Won a victory in the Colorado Court of Appeals for Continental Resources in a dispute involving purported rights to a Colorado oil and gas lease.

2016

WTO lawyers prevailed for Continental Resources in the Colorado Court of Appeals, which affirmed the dismissal of a suit challenging the validity of a Colorado oil and gas lease.

Corvax Oil & Gas Land Services brought suit challenging a Continental Resources lease, arguing that Corvax owned a valid older lease on the same property. The trial court dismissed the suit on procedural grounds. The Court of Appeals upheld that victory and granted Continental's request for attorneys' fees on appeal. The Court noted in its ruling that Corvax twice before filed similar claims and had twice been dismissed for procedural defects.

Related Professionals

Craig R. May
Partner

Related Practices

Appellate