

Won a complete defense verdict for CollegeAmerica (aka The Center for Excellence in Higher Education) in a lawsuit brought by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Won dismissal of two claims relating to severance provisions in 2014. A federal jury decided for CollegeAmerica on the final claim of retaliation in 2016

2016

WTO attorneys won a complete defense verdict following two years of litigation brought by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) against our client, CollegeAmerica, aka The Center for Excellence in Higher Education. In its lawsuit, the EEOC claimed CollegeAmerica violated the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, imposed unlawfully restrictive terms in its severance agreements, and retaliated against an executive director of a CollegeAmerica campus.

The case drew national attention. WTO attorneys defeated two claims regarding severance provisions in 2014. On June 23, 2016, a federal jury in Denver returned a complete defense

Related Professionals

Raymond W. Martin
Partner

verdict in favor of CollegeAmerica on the retaliation claim.
The Jury Verdict Reporter of Colorado covered the result.

Craig R. May
Partner

Related Practices

Employment/Class Actions