

Won a defense jury verdict in Montana for a medical center and pediatric neurologist facing up to $30 million in damages. The plaintiff claimed that our clients failed to timely diagnose and treat a rare neurological disease that led to blindness. Courtroom View Network named this one of the Top 10 verdicts of 2022.

2022

WTO lawyers won a defense jury verdict in a medical malpractice case with up to $30 million in damages. Courtroom View Network named this one of the Top 10 verdicts of 2022.

The case involved allegations that a Montana medical center and its pediatric neurologist failed to timely diagnose and treat a minor with a rare neurological disease that left the patient blind.

During the trial, WTO faced a well-known plaintiff's attorney who had previously secured numerous high-value verdicts across the country. Ultimately, WTO and co-counsel from Worden Thane proved that neither the medical center nor the physician were at fault, and that they provided the standard of care throughout the patient's diagnosis and

Related Professionals

Kevin J. Kuhn
Partner

treatment. After two days of deliberations, the jury found for WTO's clients as well as their ophthalmologist co-defendant.

Related Practices

Healthcare Litigation