303.244.1963

Mark Goldberg represents clients in professional liability and product liability matters nationwide. Mark has argued motions, taken depositions, and drafted winning dispositive motions. During a clerkship for Judge Wyrick of the U.S. District Court of the Western District of Oklahoma, Mark drafted orders that resolved motions on a variety of issues.

He also gained legal writing and research skills from intern positions for the Honorable Timothy M. Tymkovich of the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals and at the Consumer Protection Branch of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Mark also was an ESL teacher in Taipei, Taiwan. He taught the fundamentals of English to young learners–an experience that sharpened his ability to help people understand unfamiliar concepts.

Mark was an Eagle Scout. His personal interests include hiking, bird watching, reading science fiction, and cooking.
