

Ferha Khan

Associate

✉ KHAN@WTOTRIAL.COM

☎ 303.244.1851

Ferha Khan represents clients in complex civil litigation, with a focus on medical malpractice and professional negligence matters. She has gained experience at all stages of litigation, including conducting and defending depositions, assisting with trial preparation, researching complex legal and medical issues, and drafting dispositive, evidentiary, and other substantive motions. Ferha enjoys analyzing the facts and investigative aspects of each case.

Ferha was a summer law clerk at WTO for both of her summers during law school, where she gained valuable exposure and experience with legal research, writing, and trial preparation. Ferha also gained valuable experience as a legal intern to The Honorable Misha Westby in the Wyoming Second Judicial District.

Ferha is fluent in Pashto and conversational in Urdu. She is an alum of the Law School, Yes We Can! program.

Credentials

Education

University of Wyoming College of Law, J.D., Dean's Honor Roll, 2024, Legal Research and Writing Teacher's Assistant, IL Finals Trial Judge, Wyoming Wellness Advocates

University of Colorado, B.A., 2020, Social Sciences

Northern Wyoming Community College, A.A., 2018, Criminal Justice

GOVERNMENT SERVICE

Legal Intern to The Honorable Misha Westby, Wyoming Second Judicial District

LEGAL MEMBERSHIPS

Colorado Bar Association

Colorado Women's Bar Association

South Asian Bar Association

BAR AND ADMISSIONS

Colorado

Practices

Healthcare Litigation

Cases

Served on defense team on a multimillion-dollar pedestrian-vehicle collision case.

Assisted with trial preparation and argued pre-trial motions in a South Carolina medical malpractice case.

Drafted and won a motion to exclude certain opinions of an expert in a Georgia behavioral health facility case.

Drafted clemency petition and led a meeting with the Colorado Governor's office to verbally advocate for pro bono client serving 132-year sentence for a series of nonviolent crimes.
