

Ann T. Lebeck

Counsel

✉ LEBECK@WTOTRIAL.COM

☎ 303.244.1947

Ann Lebeck has significant experience in commercial litigation that includes representing both plaintiffs and defendants. She has focused on representing energy companies and public companies in high-stakes, complex disputes. Her nearly 20-year career in law prior to joining WTO spanned working at boutique and mid-sized firms as well as running her own solo practice. This broad experience has given her a practical, solutions-based approach to client matters. Ann's leadership in the legal industry includes chairing the State Bar of Texas's Women in the Profession Committee and previously serving on the Colorado Women's Bar Association's Board of Directors.

Before attending law school, Ann lived in Osaka City and Tokyo, Japan, before moving to New York City, where she worked for a leading Japanese design-build firm.
