WTO name director John R. "Jack" Trigg is featured in "Who's Who in Denver Business 2002," published Aug. 30, 2002, by the Denver Business Journal. This special section recognizes business excellence accompanied by industry and community leadership.

Trigg was 2000-2001 president of Lawyers for Civil Justice, a national organization dedicated to tort reform. He was national president (1995-1996) of the Federation of Insurance and Corporate Counsel (now the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel). He is currently on the boards of both organizations, and also on the board of the Colorado Civil Justice League. The University of Denver College of Law named him 2001 Outstanding Alumnus.

Trigg is a Fellow of the American College of Trial lawyers - which restricts its membership to the top one percent of trial lawyers. He has served as national trial counsel for Ford Motor Co. for more than 25 years, and has personally participated in cases in all 50 states - cases involving light truck rollover, airbags, fuel system integrity, and tire-tread separation.
