

Jack Trigg Selected as a “Master” by DU Alumni Association

News

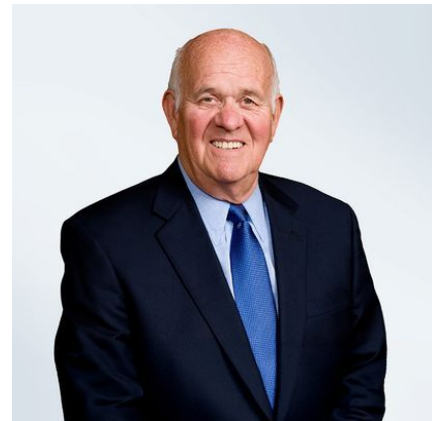

Apr 16, 2003

DENVER - John R. “Jack” Trigg, a name director at Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell, was selected by the University of Denver Alumni Association to participate in the school's eighth annual Masters Week program. Trigg represented the law school in this three-day program, which was held on campus April 6-8. He graduated from the school in 1963.

Masters Week brings outstanding alumni to campus and allows them to interact with students, faculty, staff, and the university community. The program showcases alumni and allows them to share their career insights and experiences with students.

In 2001, Trigg received the Outstanding Alumni Award from the DU College of Law. Throughout his career, Trigg has served as national trial counsel to Ford and General Motors, and regional trial counsel to Anheuser-Busch. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and was 2000-2001 president of Lawyers for Civil Justice.

Related Professionals

John R. (Jack) Trigg
Counsel Emeritus

Related Practices

Commercial Litigation
Product Liability