DENVER - The 35-attorney trial and appellate law firm of Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell LLP is the only Colorado-based law firm out of the 221 firms on the November 2004 American Lawyer Media Corporate Counsel's list of primary outside litigation counsel for Fortune 250 companies. Also, WTO was one of only two firms out of 53 firms under 50 lawyers to be selected by more than one company. WTO was named by Ford Motor Company and Pfizer Inc, numbers 4 and 25 respectively in terms of 2003 revenue, as one of their “Go-To” firms for litigation. WTO is regional trial coordinating counsel for Ford Motor Company's air bag, fuel system integrity and light truck rollover litigation, as well as Ford/Firestone litigation, and national trial coordinating counsel for Pfizer's Zoloft antidepressant litigation.
