DENVER - The Denver-based trial law firm of Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell LLP welcomes new attorneys.

Andrew H. Myers litigates product liability cases in federal and state court. He has particular experience in the defense of pharmaceutical companies, in addition to previous experience on complex commercial cases involving bankruptcy matters. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Myers practiced with Arnold & Porter LLP. He is a 2002 graduate of Boalt Hall School of Law at the University of California, Berkeley.

Bryan D. Cross returns to Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell as Special Counsel after leaving to practice law at Brown McCarroll in Texas. Bryan's practice at Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell is concentrated on complex commercial and product liability litigation in the automotive industry. Bryan is a 1995 graduate of the Indiana University School of Law.
