

Olivia Nasatir

Associate

 NASATIR@WTOTRIAL.COM

 303.244.0143

Wheeler Trigg
O'Donnell

Olivia Nasatir was a summer law clerk at the WTO prior to joining as an associate. During law school, she served as a judicial intern for Chief Judge Nancy W. Salomone of Colorado's 20th Judicial District, where she drafted orders addressing a range of civil motions. Olivia also was a legal intern in the Consumer Unit at Colorado Legal Services.

As a member of Colorado Law's National Mock Trial Team, Olivia was an AAJ Student Trial Advocacy National Competition Quarterfinalist and Regional Competition Winner. Olivia also earned first place and Best Advocate in the Carrigan Cup and first place in the Purvis Thompson Cup.

Credentials

Education

University of Colorado Law School, J.D., 2026, Order of Barristers, University of Colorado Law Review, Associate Editor, Carrigan Cup Mock Trial Winner & Best Advocate, Purvis Thompson Mock Trial Winner

Beloit College, B.A., 2020, summa cum laude, Psychology and History

Government Service

Judicial Intern to Chief Judge Nancy W. Salomone, 20th Judicial District of Colorado

Bar and Court Admissions

Colorado

Other Experience

Colorado Legal Services, Legal Intern, Consumer Unit