On November 18, 2011, the Denver Business Journal will announce the winners of its annual contest for Best Places to Work in the Denver area. Each year, the DBJ invites employees from the area's nominated companies to complete an employee attitude and benefits survey administered by Quantum Workplace.

For the seventh year in a row, Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell is among the top 10 scoring companies in its size category. The firm placed first in its size category and first among all law firm finalists in 2008 and again in 2010. This year, WTO is a finalist in the medium-sized-company category.

The 2011 winners will be announced at an awards breakfast at the Marriott City Center Hotel and published in a special section of the DBJ on November 18th.
