Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell personnel have quickly embraced the functionality and efficiency of their new home in Denver's Republic Plaza. The firm moved into the space created by RNL Design in June. The conference center and mock trial courtroom, in particular, have already enhanced the services provided to clients and the Denver legal and business communities. The firm's address is now 370 Seventeenth Street, Suite 4500, Denver, CO 80202-5647. Phone and fax numbers and email addresses have remained the same.
