Jennalee Beazley is a litigation associate who represents clients in complex civil litigation, including employment disputes, pharmaceutical patent litigation, and contract disputes. Jennalee joined WTO from the Washington, D.C., office of an AmLaw 100 firm.

Jennalee's trial experience includes serving as the sole associate on a three-attorney trial team in a seven-day jury trial, where she examined a key witness and helped secure a unanimous defense verdict in an employment discrimination action. Jennalee has experience managing significant aspects of complex litigation, including leading associate teams in large-scale discovery, developing expert damages analyses, and taking and defending fact and expert witness depositions.

Jennalee also maintains an active pro bono immigration practice and, before entering private practice, she clerked for Chief Judge Mark R. Hornak of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.
